THE EAGLE
"67"

O O S A

Far above the winding Coosa,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years roll by.
Forward, ever be our watchword;
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Coosa High School, Hail.

Little Seniors

Last Will And Testament

by

LINDA HYATT

KEN LOVELESS

We the Senior Class of Coosa High School being of strained mind and tired body, make, publish, and declare the following to be our Last Will and Testament.

I

To the JUNIOR CLASS OF COOSA HIGH SCHOOL, we leave Miss Wingard.

II

To the SOPHOMORE CLASS OF COOSA HIGH SCHOOL, we leave the responsibility of entertaining the Senior Class of '68.

III

To the FRESHMAN CLASS OF COOSA HIGH SCHOOL, we leave three more tedious years in high school.

IV

To the Faculty of Coosa High School, we leave a peaceful and quiet summer.

V

We as individuals leave the following:

- I, BRENDA ANDERSON, being of sound mind and skinny body, do hereby leave to Mrs. Long a new cigarette lighter and a warning to stay away from the bathroom.
- I, PAT ARROWOOD, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my daughter Gwendolyn to Nell Weeks and Steve Owens, and what's left of my Northern accent to Butch Barker.
- I, BARBARA ASH, being of strong body, but tired mind, leave behind all of my books, pencils, or paper to anyone who wants them. I leave to Elaine Peek my last seat on the right of the bus. Last, but not least, I leave the ability to go through four years of high school to my brother Donny.
- I, JANICE ATKINS, needing all I've got, can't leave anything, so I just hereby leave in a hurry.
- I, JEAN AYERS, being of sound mind and gaudy body, do hereby leave my boots and best wishes to my successor.
- I, JERRY BARNETTE, being of crooked mind and feeble body and President of the Hookie Society of Coosa School, leave peace and restful nights to Mr. Wilson.
- I, MIKE BEAVER, being of sound mind, do leave my Economic grades to Wade Pittman.
- I, JACK BENTON, being of sound mind and sound body, hereby leave my nickname to Bubba Keith.
- I, JANICE BOND, being of undersized mind and body, do abandon my silver instruments of correction to Peggy Downs in hopes that she will make use of them.
- Being of the soundest body and slowly decaying mind, I TIM (SNOWZER) BROOME, do hereby leave to my sister Marian, my ability to talk my way out of trouble and into even worse complication.
- I, JERRY WAYNE BROWNLOW, being of feeble mind and poor health, do hereby leave Miss Wingard. Thank God.
- I, SUSAN BURK, being of weak mind and feeble body, leave my sister Gail, Mrs. Whatley. I also wish to leave my desk in Miss Wingard's English class to some deserving junior, whom I hope profits from her as much as I did.
- I, HARRY BURKETT, being of feeble mind and short body, do hereby leave nothing, 'cause I need everything I got, except my Japanese nickname, Jap, which I leave to my Yamaha partner, Miss Wingard.
- I, LINDA CAMP, do hereby leave my Sprites to Mr. Wilson, and my memories to all the students who still have a few more years at Coosa.
- I, GALE CARNEY, do hereby leave my ability to roam the halls to Tootie Adkins.
- I, RICKY CHAPMAN, leave all my excess weight to Mike Ashworth. He'll need it.
- I, BRENT CLEMENTS, being both a mental and physical wreck, leave my ability to drive Mrs. Bailey into fits to anyone who is capable of doing it.
- I, BEVERLY COMER, leave my 1912 typewriter to any junior who wants muscles in their fingers and broken fingernails. I also leave my desk in Miss Wingard's English class to Brenda Tyler, in hopes that she will make better use of it than I did.
- I, HENRY COX, being of feeble mind and weak body, do leave my good looks to Ricky Frazier, my ability in P.E. to Lynn Bowles, and my ability in Geometry to Randy LeMaster. And now with a joyful heart, I leave.

- I, STEVE CRANE, do hereby leave my undisputed ability to spell to the rest of the Crane clan.
- I, DANNY DAILEY, being of warped mind and long body, do hereby leave my ability to overlook all the sarcasm and other quaint remarks made by Miss Wingard to all the lucky seniors of '68..... Good Luck..... I also leave a certain "tongue," to one Kathy Loftin.
- I, CATHY DAVIDSON, leave my great ability to get into ridiculous predicaments to anyone who thinks he can wiggle out of them.
- I, BETTY DAVIS, alias "Buzzy" being of no mind and hardly any body, do hereby leave my secret of cleaning with AJAX and PARSONS AMMONIA to Janice Loveless.
- I, JIMMY DAVIS, being of whatever I am, do hereby leave whatever I have, Lynn omitted, to whoever may get it.
- I, ANZIE DEW, being of weak mind and sound body, do hereby leave my good figure to Peggy Downs. And my bleached hair to Miss Wingard in hopes she will have better luck with it than I did.
- I, CYNTHIA DOWNS, being of wornout mind and tired body, do hereby leave to Peggy and JoAnn my ability to be late for band, my baton to anyone who can hold onto it better than I did, and to anyone who wants it, good old C. H. S.
- I, HUGH EARLY, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my "Roman Chariot" to Bobby Moman just in case he decides to play football again.
- I, YVONNE GARRETT, hereby leave my honesty and ability to all students.
- I, JERRY GORE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my space ship to whoever can fly it.
- I, KATHY GRESHAM, do hereby leave anything I left behind to anybody who can find it.
- I, JERRY GRIFFIN, being of not much of a mind and fat body, do hereby leave the ability to speak plainly and slowly to Butch Barker.
- I, LAMARA HALE, being of weak mind, do hereby leave my ability to eat ham sandwiches in study hall to some hungry student.
- I, CURTIS HALL, hereby leave Suzy and all her possessions to Greg Crider.
- I, GARY HAMMOND, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my nickname to Steve Owens.
- I, MARGARETTE HELTON (BUG), bequeath to the following lucky ones my talents: 1st: My great ability to make one A during my two years of typing to anyone who wants to fail the rest of the time. 2nd: My ability to talk all of 5th period to Mrs. Payne to Jenny Fuller, knowing that she is very capable of carrying on this tradition. Last but most important of all I LEAVE!
- I, BEVERLY HINDS, leave my natural curly hair to Darlene Harvey.
- I, TERESA HULL, hereby leave my best wishes and the great ambition of fight for your goal to the future Seniors of Coosa High School.
- I, LINDA HYATT, being of wornout mind and body, do hereby will the ability to volunteer to do the Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of '68 to anybody stupid enough to do it.
- I, CAROLYN JONES, leave a box of pencils to Coach Enis, who seems to never have one to write the absentee list with.
- I, DIANE JUSTICE, leave to anyone my ability to tear up adding machines in hopes that they can fix them.
- I, CARRIE KILGO, do hereby leave my ability to tear up typewriters to any mechanical minded typing student.
- I, DON LEAGUE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Mr. Jolley my red complexion.
- I, SANDRA LEDBETTER, do hereby leave my book, HOW TO PASS GEOMETRY THROUGH PRAYERS to the class of '68.
- I, CRAIG LEDFORD, leave my guns and holster and horse to Bruce Canada.
- I, BRENDA LEWIS, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave my seat in Mrs. Bailey's room to Marian Broome in hopes that she will get along better and do better.
- I, SUE LORD, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my Economic book to anybody who could pass by the skin of their teeth.
- I, JANETTE LOVELESS, A resident of Rome, State of Georgia, hereby leave this excellent school and all its well-equipped facilities to all those who will have to attend it.

- I, KEN LOVELESS, gratefully leave all my brothers and sisters to every teacher I've had in high school, in hopes that it will bring back fond memories for them.
- I, JANET LUCAS, being of tired mind and body, do hereby leave my top locker to Larry Chambers and my ability to be late for class to anyone who likes to stay in trouble.
- I, TERESA LUMPKIN, leave Mrs. Enis' room peaceful and quiet. I also leave Linda Muse my locker and key, and Charlie Myers my books.
- I, WAYNE MANN, being of feeble mind and shaken body, leave my curly hair to W. W. W.
- I, SUSAN McRAY, being of sound mind and clean body, do hereby leave five majorette uniforms to Peggy Downs in hopes that she will put them to better use than I did.
- I, DON McCOY, leave Coosa with gratitude.
- I, STEVE MITCHELL, will anything I have at Coosa to anyone who will take it.
- I, CAROLE MONTEITH, leave Mrs. Bailey all my pennies from heaven to buy a new "temper" since 5th period wore her old one out.
- I, ELLEN MULINIX, do hereby leave to Barbara Nicholson, my book on HOW TO PASS GEOMETRY WITHOUT REALLY TRYING.
- I, STEVE MULL, being of sound body and mind, leave my superior typing ability to Gary McGill.
- I, DON MURPHINE, do hereby leave all my annual equipment to some lucky junior next year. Also I leave my desk in Miss Wingard's room to Becky Loftin.
- I, RONALD MURPHINE, declare this to be my last will and testament. First: I leave my English book to some lucky junior. Second: I leave my part as stage manager to some lucky person who likes to work real hard. Third: I leave all the papers to be graded to Mr. Frew and Mrs. Wagner. Fourth: I leave my sympathy to all the teachers and students who will be here again next year.
- I, CHARLIE MYERS, being of strong mind and back, leave to Billy Wayne Shirey, a year's supply of F's in English to match the ones he got this year. To Mr. Tidmore, all my candy wrappers in the desk I sit in, and to Mr. Hardin, 90 cents in change which I've lost in the coke machine since I've been here.
- I, SCOTT NICHOLSON, being of unsound mind and outstanding body, do hereby leave my curly hair to Nancy Mullinax, who claims she needs it.
- I, BARBARA NIXON, do leave to Susan McCleod, the mud I marched in during marching season in hopes she will enjoy it.
- I, MARILYN NIXON, hereby leave the pounding sounds of drums and the clicking sounds of typewriters to Sherry Holder in hopes that they don't run her crazy too.
- I, JERRY NORMAN, leave to this great Coosa High School, my 4-H achievements and one cow.
- I, GARY OSBORNE, do hereby leave nothing in remembrance of me to Coosa High School.
- I, DANNY PATE, being of weak mind and strong legs, leave my No. 14 basketball jersey to Bob Goble in hopes that he uses it better than I did. To John Crane, I leave my ability to stay out of trouble and to the up-coming students, I leave Coosa.
- I, TERRY RAYBURN, being of unsound mind and unwelcome body, do hereby leave my long hair and sexy looks to John Crane--he needs them!
- I, BILL REED, being of weak mind, body, and so forth, do hereby leave all my teachers for their own good.
- I, LINDA RICHARDS, being of weak mind and feeble body, wish to leave my desk in the business room to any up-coming senior, and also I wish to leave my sister, Cindy Richards, my desk in English Class, but I do hope she makes better grades than I did.
- I, PHILLIP ROGERS, do leave my front row seat at the Rome Wrestling arena to Miss Wingard.
- I, RONNIE SIMPSON, being under the influence of L. S. D. and strain of financial pitfall, do hereby resolve that I'm in no position to leave anyone anything.
- I, CONNIE SMITH, being of weak mind and body, leave my literature book to any unlucky junior who thinks he can keep a cover on it all year.
- I, JIMMIE SMITH, do hereby leave my ability to wear short dresses in government class to Gail Barnes.
- I, RUTH SMITH, do hereby leave the Georgia flag to the color guard who replaces me, in hopes that she has better luck in holding it steady in strong winds than I did.
- I, SAMMY SMITH, being of sound body and feeble mind, do hereby leave the nickname of "Chopper" to Lynn Bowles.

- I, SHERRI SMITH, being of minute mind and busy body, do hereby bequeath to my successor my slightly faded color guard uniforms. They are "Twiggy" originals from London. I will also throw in my boots, braids, tassels, and rifle, hoping they mean as much to my successor as they have meant to me.
- I, DANNY SNYDER, being of sickly body and unsound mind, doth bequeath my senior math grades to Kendall Stewart.
- I, LUCILLE SPRAYBERRY, leave my good walking shoes to anyone who wants to give out absentee reports each morning.
- I, PAUL J. SUNDAY, being of sound, self-centered mind, bequeath nothing to anyone, as I need it all myself where I am going.
- I, CHARLOTTE TATE, being of aching mind and tired body, hereby leave to June Brooks my good old office practice book that was so useful to me in passing away time when Mrs. Whatley gave lectures in class. I also leave to Cheryl Rampley my dear old typewriter that seems to never space after the letter S. I leave to every junior, Miss Wingard's warm English room and entertaining lectures.
- I, JUDI TATE, leave my ability to be late for office practice and get away with it to Brenda Tate, and my hopes for the growth of our FHA chapter to Brenda Tyler and Janice Norton.
- I, CHRIS TAYLOR, having a small head and sound body, do hereby leave my size 2 baseball cap to anyone who can wear it.
- I, KATHRYN STELLA TOWE, hereby leave Sandra Walker my teased wig and squeaky shoes.
- I, CAROLYN VARNEDOE, do hereby leave.
- I, RONNIE VICK, being of sound body and unclean mind, leave to some lucky junior Mr. Frew's campaign speeches and my seat in his room 6th period. To the rest of my faithful teachers I leave my younger brother, who is just like me: quiet, considerate, smart, and slim. And because of her gentle manner in class, her loving passion for noise, and her contribution to the betterment of vocabulary, I leave Miss Sara Wingard a great big ole smooch.
- I, JANICE WATSON, do hereby leave my majorette uniforms to anybody that can wear them and wants to buy 'em.
- I, SAMMY O. WILSON, being of unstable mind and shaken body, do hereby leave all my cuts from Miss Wingard to the next victim, whoever he may be in '68.
- I, WILLIAM YOUNG, JR., being of strong mind and even stronger body, do hereby, upon my departure, leave my image of Howdy Doody to whoever wants the fame.
- I, ALAN THOMAS "BO" YOUNGBLOOD, wish to will all my bookkeeping materials, such as my book, pencils and pens, straight edge, and practice sets, to the next deserving person who signs up for the very nerve-racking-but fun course.

Signed, Sealed, Published, and Declared by the Senior Class of Coosa High School as and for our Last Will and Testament.

OUR CHOICE

By Jean Ayers

All Hail the '67 graduating class
At the end of high school: We finally passed!
Only one step in our progress is through,
Now what of the graduate, what will he do?

Maybe he'll stand in the welfare line--
Or go to college to improve his mind?
He'll spend long hours composing dull themes
Or flunking toilsome math tests 'til it seems--

He'll be torn from his distinguished fraternity,
Forced to wade through swamps, and fight snipers in trees.
The Selective Service of dear ol' Uncle Sam
Will have him fighting the Viet Cong in Viet Nam.

But he'll burn his card, and dodge the draft,
And might even manage a D in math.
He'll pull through college, then he'll be free
To "Riot on Sunset" for LSD.

Need we all be as this disreputable drip
With his 'acid parties' and colorful 'trips'?
Life gives us a free choice; our own we must bear,
Whether we gain fame and fortune or live on welfare.

To succeed, we must take a stronger hold--
And stick to our courses, keep sight of our goals,
Withstand temptation, holdfast to what's right,
Be assets to America, increasing its might.

There's so little done, and so much to do--
With heads up, eyes forward, may the Eagles come through.

Mr. and Miss C.H.S.

COACH MASON:

This letter is to express our appreciation to you for all the time and hard work you have given to us this year. At times it looked as if we didn't appreciate your expended energy; we hope this letter will make up for those times.

Our season, as we all know, was not a good one in terms of wins and losses. It was a long, hard season, and it taught us never to lose pride in ourselves. We fought hard, but the team was young. This past year has given it the experience it needs.

This letter is not intended to make excuses for the mistakes we made during the season. We know that it will do no good to make excuses for these. We have profited from them, and next year we will be able to put forth a bigger effort to win because we understand the mistakes we made this season.

We would also like to thank Mrs. Mason for all her help and support this year.

We hope this letter has clearly expressed the appreciation of every girl on the basketball team this year. We will end it with a promise to do the very best we can for our school and for you in the coming season.

A black and white photograph showing five men in a workshop setting. Four men are clustered around a large industrial machine, likely a lathe or mill, which is processing a piece of wood. They are all looking intently at the work. The man on the far left is wearing a light-colored short-sleeved shirt and dark trousers. The man next to him is also in a light-colored short-sleeved shirt. The man in the center is wearing a dark polo shirt. The man to his right is wearing a plaid shirt. A fifth man stands to the right of the machine, holding a long-handled tool. He is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt and light-colored trousers. The background is a brick wall. The machine has a large flywheel and various adjustment knobs. The overall scene suggests a hands-on learning experience in a technical or vocational program.
